

Example of Hospital Pharmacist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of hospital pharmacist. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for hospital pharmacist

- Assists in Medication Reconciliation with the patient
- Assists in codes
- Prepares sterile products including large/small volume parenterals, including chemotherapeutic agents as needed
- Performs computer operations to enter physician orders, maintain patient profiles, generate reports, understand and operate the interfacing of various systems and utilize the dispensing unit for controlled substances
- Performs unit inspection of designated patient care areas by checking controlled drugs, refrigerators, stock levels, medication carts, expiration dating of multi-dose vials, medication stashes, expiration dates, and overall medication handling practices
- Documents activities in the departmental approved data management programs as needed
- Reviews and provides analysis of patterns of medication use along with providing recommendations for the department to review
- Reviews and evaluates departmental policies and procedures as it pertains to Clinical Pharmaceutical Services on an ongoing basis and submits to the Director of Pharmacy for approval any recommended changes
- Ensures review of JCAHO standards and advises on JCAHO standards relative to medication use
- Performs clinical and financial interventions

Qualifications for hospital pharmacist

- Board Certification in specialty area from Board of Pharmacy Specialists preferred
- ASHP accredited residency or equivalent experience in hospital pharmacy preferred
- Board Certified in Pharmacotherapy or relevant field preferred
- Knowledge of analytical and/or statistical theory and applications
- Ability to analyze data to interpret and evaluate results, and create reports and/or presentations