

Example of Information Designer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of information designer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for information designer

- Develop and support of technical documentation
 - Addresses technical discussion for issues and provide recommendations for resolution
 - Work collaboratively within a project team of committed professionals
 - Ensure that all deliverables from Offshore are as per the quality guidelines
 - Conceptualize, design, code, develop and test the web design of complex online courses and content using HTML and CSS (including HTML5 and CSS3), interactive e-learning authoring software
 - Utilize visual communications expertise including proficiency with various media (photographs, vector art, and other illustrations software including Adobe Creative Suite), color theory, fonts, file types, creating a consistent visual image, , in the design and development of online courses and content that support and enhance student learning
 - Organize, maintain timelines, and workflow for projects
 - Engage in continuous improvement related to emerging technologies and current best practices in a rapidly changing field, including adopt, implement, and educate colleagues on new techniques and practices
 - Provide technical, and visual leadership, and coding language (HTML and CSS) support to the Center for Learning Technology to ensure quality end products, including implementing style guides and other resources and tools to promote consistency in online products
 - Create visual mockups and explorations from wireframe sketches
-

- Good knowledge in Data warehousing concepts
- Expertise with Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign or their functional equivalent
- Experience designing interaction and visual design systems for home networking, home automation, home security, or whole home audio systems
- Bachelor's degree - preferably in design, communications, computer science, or a related field
- A minimum of 3 but preferably 5 years of professional experience in UX/UI design or development
- Expertise writing user personas, conducting user interviews, building complex information architectures, and designing website wireframes