Our growing company is looking to fill the role of information security advisor. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for information security advisor

- Improve employee cybersecurity education and awareness in the Medical business segment including global locations through socialization of Information Security strategies and goals
- Assist with incidence response planning investigation of security breaches, disciplinary and legal matters associated with breaches as necessary in the Medical segment
- Assist in prioritizing information security initiatives and spending based on appropriate risk management taking into account the Medical segment business needs and priorities
- Ensure information technology compliance with data privacy and other regulations in the Medical segment
- Prevents Security Problems across multiple systems
- Interview business stakeholders in order to define and document Access Control Matrix and related documents for application onboarding projects
- Establish a strong working relationship with the various business partners among Canadian Banking, International Banking, Global Banking & Markets, Global Wealth & Insurance and internal IT&S teams to ensures access certification and access termination changes provides value and consistency added to the user and customer experience by onboarding applications to the bank's access governance platforms
- Initialize continued process improvements of access governance

Qualifications for information security advisor

- 4+ years relevant work experience in Information Technology
- 4+ years working risk assessments with all levels of management
- CISSP, CISA, CISM, CRISC or similar certification are must
- Minimum three (3) years of experience in similar role
- Solid understanding of ISO27001/ISO27002, IT Governance best practices, SSAE16/PCI/COBIT/ITIL
- Experience in working with legal, audit and compliance staff