

Example of Information Security Compliance Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of information security compliance. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for information security compliance

- Focus on documenting and auditing security controls on in-scope systems in context of ISO-27001 certification and NIST 800-53 security program
- Assists VP, InfoSec Compliance facilitating external audits and providing direct assistance to internal teams in various types of engagements
- Build and maintain relationships with IT and Business to ensure an understanding of technology strategies, infrastructure, and applications
- Maintain team that can provide security and privacy consulting expertise at all layers of the technology stack
- Drive change and innovation in the tools and processes used to perform our work
- Build and deploy process in a governance, risk, and compliance system
- Advise on best tools, processes, practices and standards to ensure effective and efficient assessment processes
- Analyze workflows, staffing, and related metrics to improve efficiency and performance
- Hire and coach team members with an emphasis on training, motivating, and retaining top employees to ensure a high performing team
- Assure compliance with policies, standards and controls

Qualifications for information security compliance

- CISA , CISSP, PMP, CRISC or other relevant designation required

- In-depth knowledge of security-related technologies, such as Cisco PIX firewall OS, Nokia Checkpoint firewall OS, TCP/IP, DNS, SATAN, CyberCop, ISS, nmap, IBM Secure Way, and/or Web Single Sign-On (SSO)
- Proven ability to collaboratively plan, document, and deploy IT security operational best practices/processes
- Deep understanding of security technologies and methods as they apply in an enterprise environment
- Broad understanding of retail business processes, business applications, data flows, and requirements desired