

Example of Information Security Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for an information security manager. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for information security manager

- You have a strong understanding of technical terminology
- You have a successful record of accomplishment of developing strategies, and designing and executing on the associated plan
- You are CISSP, CISA or CISM certified, optional but not mandatory
- Ideally, you have Project Management experience, optional but not mandatory
- Provides program management expertise for large to enterprise scale programs with moderate to high complexity
- Collaborating with staff and management of multiple worldwide business units and outside 3rd parties to clearly identify, explain, and communicate their program involvement, program goals, expectations, tasks, and timelines
- Owning the program portfolio by integrating various project schedules, task assignments, and managing schedule progress - from large phases through to detailed tasks, including understanding and managing dependencies
- Drives key initiatives in the Program Management Office to strengthen and improve efficiencies across projects
- Identifies areas for process improvement and forms working groups to carry out those improvements
- Portfolio management experience at the program level

Qualifications for information security manager

- Formal training in risk assessment methodology, industrial control systems, external penetration testing and forensic training is preferred
- Structured project management experience and broad experience in computer and network systems, application development security, desktop environments
- Monitors advancements in information security technologies
- Knowledge and experience of ISO/IEC 27001, Privacy, Risk Management, Information, Personnel, Physical security, Information security, Business Continuity and Crisis Management
- Proven knowledge of PCI-DSS
- Demonstrated ability to thrive in an Agile development environment