Our growing company is looking for an information security senior. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for information security senior

- Proactively monitor, evaluate, and maintain systems and procedures that safeguard internal information systems, network, databases, and Web-based security
- Develop education and communication security requirements and procedures to users and new employees
- Ability to create and deliver professional security documentation to include training presentations and briefings
- Familiarity with security applications
- Skilled at evaluating and applying Information Assurance Vulnerability Alert (IAVA) mitigation's
- Experienced system administrator for Microsoft Windows operating systems
- Experience with security certificate process, troubleshooting certificate access problems
- Support assessment of our security by our customers, internal, and external auditors
- Supports IT and other areas of the organization by answering technical and procedural questions
- Mentors and partners with less-experience team members

Qualifications for information security senior

- Determine standards and roadmaps for hardware and software
- Conduct major studies regarding system usage, makes recommendations for

- Interface with departments and assess higher profile projects for security risks, identify the potential exposures and present recommendations
- Prepare management reporting of all security engagements and manage workload
- Research, design, and implement security monitoring practices and operationalize these processes across the enterprise
- Direct the review, development, testing and implementation of security plans, products and control techniques