

Example of Information Systems Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for an information systems manager. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for information systems manager

- Serve as the primary point of contact for all information technology systems and security functions between the company and customer the site and corporate support
- Leads audits or significant components of audits, including core data center infrastructure, application, and project audits
- Designs and executes internal control testing for audits, demonstrating a degree of audit expertise consistent with experience level
- Supervises and coordinates work assignments amongst audit team members
- Establishes and maintains good auditee relations during engagements
- On audit engagements, facilitates teamwork, coordinates and leverages available resources to complete engagements on time
- Work with the resource management teams to develop and manage the resource supply plan for the business
- Help implement Information System Security Plans and Protection Profiles
- Ownership, delivery and documentation of functional requirements and specifications by applying experience and understanding of enterprise application integration, object-oriented design and use case modeling
- Liaise between all levels of cross-functional team to ensure a quality solution that delivers business results (team members cover multiple-disciplines in multiple environments, sometimes outside of North America.)

Qualifications for information systems manager

Executive Dashboards or Flash Reports, Meeting Minutes, Issues Lists, Change Management Documents and other common project management tools

- Demonstrated ability to communicate and interact with users, vendors and support techs in the role of Project Manager for healthcare IT projects
- Must have strong problem solving / troubleshooting / analysis skills
- A superior understanding of the elements of effective control over accuracy and completeness of financial reporting
- Minimum of 10 years of relevant I.S
- Understands and uses the enterprise's selected methodology, principles, standards, and tools