

Example of Infrastructure Leader Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for an infrastructure leader. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for infrastructure leader

- To maintain a suitable supply, distribution and logistics for different stages of product launch to market
- To handle customer service setup for different stages of product launch to market
- Enable and provide support for trade and consumer engagement platforms during activities and planning
- Plan for long-term integration of distribution and customer service into regular functions
- Ensure that initiatives are scalable and dynamic in order to support different business needs
- Directly supports project acquisition, as necessary, through the sales process
- Act as the liaison between Business, Region and CoreTech service teams
- Advise business teams on technology issues and opportunities
- Make proactive proposals to solve for Regional and Business outcomes
- Ensure high customer experience through established infrastructure metrics against SLAs

Qualifications for infrastructure leader

- Execution Management – Collaborates effectively with geographic sales teams, CI GBU, other AMS RBUs, and value chain partners to ensure operational responsiveness to challenges and alignment with business imperatives
- Business and Financial Acumen – Exhibits authoritative business and financial

- P&L Management – Sets and manages the business investments and resource allocations essential to ensuring the financial growth of business group
- Prior managerial experience preferred or leading of teams for engagements
- Experienced professional with exposure in the asset management industry and knowledge of the Australian & International wealth management industry
- Strong problem solving skills – ability to utilise available resources archive optimal outcome for the business