Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of infrastructure manager. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for infrastructure manager

- Providing visibility and transparency to performance of the environment
- Collaborating with engineers, architects and business analysts to derive insights to complex problems and for coordinating efforts of the engineers and managed service team to resolve these problems and drive improvements
- Planning for and leading a team of engineers to deliver technology maintenance updates and to build and support deployments of new technologies
- Constantly improving the services of the team, with an eye towards automation and self-service
- Monitor supplier performance on resource and skills assignment and provide reporting and issues management
- Effectively control project scope, ensuring that projects are delivered on time, within budget, and continuing to meet customer expectations
- Assemble project plans and teamwork assignments, directing and monitoring work efforts on a daily basis
- Accommodate tolerable service outages for the business
- Defining each element of the project plan
- Ensuring all project stakeholders are identified and sufficiently informed and involved during all stages of the project

Qualifications for infrastructure manager

- Over 5 years experience in a delivery focused infrastructure project manager role
- Troubleshoot problems with 3 rd party and custom developed applications
- Assemble documentation related to software and hardware environments
- Provide leadership in the preventative and proactive practices
- Architect, plan, and manage VMware production environment
- Develop a road map for infrastructure services