Our growing company is looking for an infrastructure manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for infrastructure manager

- Input onto the ongoing development / improvement of the Group's Change Governance, Delivery Methods, Standards and Tools
- Responsible for ensuring your team's KPIs are monitored, actions taken and evaluated accordingly – delegating & empowering as appropriate
- Perform interviews for new professionals and provide feedback for promoting professionals
- Responsible for ensuring communication takes place both upwards and downwards across your area of responsibility
- Have knowledge and understanding of and be able to apply the Company's Human Resource Policies, supported by the HR Manager as appropriate
- Creating and executing project work plans and revises as appropriate to meet changing needs and requirements
- Determining appropriate revenue recognition, ensuring timely and accurate invoicing, and monitoring receivables for projects
- Following up with clients regarding unpaid invoices
- Analyzing project profitability, revenue, margins, bill rates and utilization
- Managing day-to-day client interaction, setting and managing client expectations

Qualifications for infrastructure manager

- Bachelor's Degree (Information Technology or related field) or equivalent required and 8-10 years of related experience
- Logical thinker and extensive hands-on operations experience in an

- Practical experience of FTTP techniques
- Field operative management
- Cabling and splicing and/or BTOR accreditation (beneficial)