Our growing company is hiring for an infrastructure tech specialist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for infrastructure tech specialist

- Ensuring smooth operations of the VPC environment
- Monitoring server utilizations and taking corrective measures
- Monitoring VRP replication to DR, and ensuring DR is in sync with Prod environment
- Performing DR activities at scheduled intervals
- Should have experience in managing Enterprise Servers
- Should have good knowledge of Datacenter components like Servers, Network, Firewall, Applications
- Builds individual relationships with team based on open, honest and constructive two way feedback
- Makes timely and accurate decisions even under pressure
- Confident and articulate communicator who uses a range of skills and techniques
- Technical review and analysis of project solutions

Qualifications for infrastructure tech specialist

- Ability to multi-task and proficient in Microsoft Office applications
- Knowing about open systems, open source software, Docker is preferred
- Additional experience may be substituted in lieu of a degree
- Certified Data Centre Professional or Equivalent
- Qualifications in ITIL Foundation level at a minimum