

Example of Instructional Designer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of instructional designer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for instructional designer

- Create compelling deliverables with minimal supervision or direction
- Adhere to a work ethic that embraces tight deadlines, accountability, and reliability
- Communicate comfortably with managers, peers, and other design stakeholders
- Collaborate across functions and levels
- Creates learning objectives, design documents, storyboards, and other learning design deliverables
- Coordinates internal and external subject matter experts to obtain required job and task information
- Develops learning solutions using project-based templates when appropriate
- Knows standard eLearning development tools and software (Articulate Storyline and Presenter, Adobe Captivate)
- Tests and debugs deliverables for quality assurance
- Partners with Learning Strategy Senior Managers on confirming needs analysis and instructional strategy

Qualifications for instructional designer

- Experience with e-learning tools required
- Knowledge of training and development practice and methods, including needs assessment
- Minimum of three years' experience in design and development of corporate

- Comprehensive knowledge of current instructional theories and principles applicable to instructor-led and computer-based training
- 3-6 years of experience in Instructional Design, including both classroom and virtual content development