

Example of Instrument Fitter Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of instrument fitter. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for instrument fitter

- Report to Foreman in a timely manner any obstacles which are likely to impede the crew's ability to meet targets
- Responsible for confirming that any piece of lifting equipment has been properly tagged or colour coded as being safe for production lifting activities
- Select type and size of pipe, tube and related material according to job specification
- Measure, cut, bend, thread, assemble and install primary piping and tubing including Stainless Steel tube and Galvanised pipe
- Follows all hazardous waste handling guidelines, along with all necessary and relevant safety measures
- Perform field installation in a timely, accurate and safe manner
- Ability to read and interpret electrical, instrumentation, P&ID drawings, and other technical documentation
- Verify instruments comply with supplied engineered data sheets, install instruments and instrument tubing in compliance with engineered drawings and details, understand and perform all required tube testing per project requirements
- Ability to use power tools and shop equipment necessary to fabricate instrument stands and tubing supports
- Read and interpret electrical, instrumentation, P&ID drawings, and other technical documentation

Qualifications for instrument fitter

- A drug test and physical exam will be completed in Port Arthur, Texas
- Must be familiar with rack tube bending, fabrication, & fitting
- Pull measurements
- 1/4 & 1/2 inch up to 1 1/4 pipe
- Stainless (primarily), Copper Nickle, Plastic PVC / Tube Tray