Our company is looking to fill the role of integration analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for integration analyst

- Will be responsible for all phases of program from design concept to production release and launch
- Utilize and manage AVBOM and WERS, including P-Release and Change Control
- Support VP and pre-production builds at NMPDC and at Assembly Plants as appropriate - (go on launch outside of SE Michigan)
- Manage Body delivery to Program milestones and engineering gateways
- Manage and drive closure to issues utilizing AIMS, eFDVS, CRs
- Facilitate cross-functional issue resolution involving other PMTs and Core organizations
- Strong understanding of middle and back office workflows, including the trade life cycle for execution to settlement
- A strong interest in the financial markets - Equity, Fixed Income, FX & Commodities
- Worked in a client support function and understand the importance of strong customer service
- A keen ability to troubleshoot

Qualifications for integration analyst

- Strong troubleshooting experience required
- Bachelor Degree in Business Management or Engineering
- 5 years of engineering experience in a professional environment
- Experience managing suppliers and cross functional teams

- Basic knowledge of data mapping using Extract Transform Load (ETL), EDI, DataStage or MapReduce