

Example of Integration Analyst Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of integration analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for integration analyst

- Manage and monitor CRM Tools/alert queues for incoming cases
- Manage and monitor iPaaS tools to proactively handle and resolve issues
- Manage communications of the client (internal and external) with regard to deliverables, timeframes, by understanding their prioritization
- Develop and maintain technical product knowledge
- Coordinate development and submission of regulatory filings
- Partner with internal and external stakeholders to develop streamlined and automated solutions for reporting processes
- Execute upon a program designed to ensure quality and accuracy of information reported
- Implement solutions to address identified process issues
- Help coordinate the capital planning production cycles
- Stay informed of regulatory and industry practices

Qualifications for integration analyst

- Basic knowledge with data warehouse environments such as Netezza, Teradata, Greenplum, Hadoop
- Oracle, Cerner and CCL (Cerner CCL (Cerner Command Language) is the Cerner Corporation fourth-generation programming language, which is expressed in the Cerner Discern Explorer solution
- Exposure to IT strategy and roadmap development to work effectively with the business counterparts

- Financial crimes / fraud knowledge / risk management – a plus
- Concise documentation such as technology recommendation, research summary, white papers for executive audience