Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of integration developer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for integration developer

- Document necessary integration architecture design and analysis work
- Participate in broader technical reviews used to detect defects in requirements, design, code, test cases, or other project artifacts
- Support Senior Data Integration Developers in the design and development of proof of concept and prototype application environments
- Writing new, modifying existing and testing of business process, web services, batch processes and web applications
- Ensures that the technical solution fits within standards adopted by the organization
- Work with the integration architect to define, adapt and maintain those standards for legacy and new integration solutions
- Involved in production support but will be involved part time in major projects to facility knowledge transfer
- Knowledgeable in SoftwareAG webMethods components like Designer, CentraSite, Mediator, BPM, MFT, MWS, OneData, OFI, JDBC adapter, SAP adapter and CloudStreams adapter
- Learning and support Dell Boomi, DS&C IT's new iPaaS tool
- Understanding of Business Process Configuration, Security, Report Writer, will be preferred

Qualifications for integration developer

- Oracle Fusion and MFT

- 6-8 years of related experience with at least 3+ years on ETL and backend systems, including work on application servers
- Experience in designing, coding, integrating and testing software (SDLC) implementations using Java/J2EE involving development of Multi-Tier, Client/Server and Web based applications
- Expertise in most of the following –Oracle 10gr2, 11gr2