

Example of Integration Specialist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for an integration specialist. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for integration specialist

- Contribute to T&O's strategic priority of developing and working in an Agile/DevOps mindset
- Plan, design and drive implementation of enterprise architecture solutions with a primary focus on application, cloud, and infrastructure automation
- Determine scope of work, sets and prioritizes tasks and key milestones for infrastructure service projects
- Perform GTI assessments to help sprint team understand if new items are required
- Security minded to be able to provide feedback on controls that align with a DevOps culture while ensuring risk controls are met
- Identify services to convert to packaged, repeatable offerings to build end to end solutions
- Enforce a collaborative agile/devops environment and technology best practices, closing the gap between development and operations to create enterprise solutions that support high availability, maintainability and automation
- Develop business cases that reflect Business benefit analysis and communicate them clearly to both business and technical audience
- Provides technical guidance and counsel to development, testing, deployment, and operations teams ensuring that processes and deliverables align with the devops vision
- Ensure that the technical solution effectively delivers what is needed to

Qualifications for integration specialist

- Seven or more years of related experience required, to include the ability to integrate complex H/W and S/W systems
- Understanding of DAGs, CAS, Public Folder management
- Occasional travel between SLF locations may be required depending on work assignment
- Providing on-call support for production environments on a rotating schedule may be required
- File Transfer protocol experience (HTTP, HTTPS, FTP)
- Fluent English, Preferred but not required Multi-lingual skills