

Example of Integration Specialist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of integration specialist. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for integration specialist

- Utilizes functional computer knowledge to manage Microsoft Windows and Microsoft Office programs
- On occasion, the project may take on an aggressive nature and calls may fall outside of standard work hours
- Projects may require travel with a minimum of one overnight visit but no more than 4 business days in a row
- Perform operationalizing activities from deployed project plans to ensure sustainability results are achieved on assigned projects
- Work with subject matter experts to develop operational use of new implemented tools and metrics to be placed into use
- Monitoring established process adherence and benefit results of assigned projects
- Establish corrective action plans, change management requirements, perform Lesson Learned sessions, adjusted process improvements, operational tweaks and sustainability plans
- Lead the partnership and integration on Policy, Procedure, process requirements and ensure training is defined and established
- Ability to interact with internal and external clients to identify, research and analyze situations to resolve highly advanced problems
- Skill in supervisory practices/application

Qualifications for integration specialist

- At least 2 years of MuleSoft Integration Experience (strongly preferred) or with a comparable API and ESB platform
- Various connector technologies including JMS, JDBC, .Net
- In-depth knowledge of software configuration practices
- Work with peers to identify/resolve customer satisfaction issues related to integration
- Travel to customer sites to provide consulting and integration services as needed