

Example of Intellectual Property Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of intellectual property. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for intellectual property

- Lead projects and people related to data quality, new business, areas of efficiency, development
- Develop and execute the technical IP strategy for printing system programs and their supplies, new and adjacent technologies
- Supporting finance and legal with agreements related to your support areas in order to help ensure IP interests are protected and proper payment of royalties are made over time
- Initiating patentability, right to use, and state of art patent searches
- Supporting patent assertions and defenses
- Manages outside counsel representing the company in litigation concerning intellectual property rights, including ANDA litigation, and potentially a variety of other matters
- Manages the intellectual property staff
- Assists with legal strategy, develops, and implements policies and training for ensuring company compliance with intellectual property laws, and the management of prosecution and litigation related risks
- Supports the intellectual property aspects of Adamas' collaborative and licensing agreements
- Counsels and supports transactions involving intellectual property, including due diligence or licensing matters

Qualifications for intellectual property

- Juris Doctorate from an ABA-accredited law school with superior academic credentials
- At least 8-10 years in-house or law firm experience focused on intellectual property
- Experience managing teams and outside counsel on a global scale
- Experience managing extensive global IP portfolios
- Strong oral and written communication, negotiation, interpersonal and critical thinking skills