

Example of Interior Designer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of interior designer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for interior designer

- Uphold continual aggressive pursuit of billable design hours and furniture sales
- Fills role of Project Interior Designer/Interior Architect for a variety of project types within a multi-disciplinary design team throughout the design process (programming, concept design, design development, construction documents, and construction administration)
- Provides leadership and project coordination to teams of junior interior designers and architects
- Communicates design solutions to internal project team members to client representatives
- Serves as a mentor to junior interior designers/architects
- Execute and champion the Design process per company guidelines
- Responsible for creating grassroots opportunities to increase the overall performance of the Design Program
- Considerable independence is required for the Design process
- Provide assistance to the PA with coordination of all engineering discipline's & outside consultants
- Develop, specify and manage interior designs for capital projects based on the needs of the end user and within the set confines of the current system design standards

Qualifications for interior designer

- Strong communication, planning and collaboration skills, and be comfortable working both independently and in a team environment on a variety of projects and tasks
- Experience working with clients internal and external project teams to execute the project from concept to completion
- Rendering skills are strongly preferred
- Bachelor's degree in Interior Design