

Example of Interventional Radiology Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of interventional radiology. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for interventional radiology

- Monitors resource utilization, supplies and expenses
- Takes action immediately as needed
- Recommends alternative products and processes
- Responsible for ordering and stocking the Angiographic suite
- Ensures department compliance to JCAHO and/or all applicable governmental agencies
- Reviews all angiography policies and procedures at least annually and revises as needed
- Assist with physician inquiries in the Angiography area
- Coordinates and assist in answering scheduling and patient information questions
- Coordinates the scheduling of procedures with the appropriate Radiologist, department, nursing floor and departmental staff
- Assists in developing and reviewing the process for charges occurred during procedures

Qualifications for interventional radiology

- Two years working as a staff Radiologic Technologist
- 1-3 years experience in interventional radiology preferred
- Must be registered with the American Registry of Radiologic Technology (ARRT) with the advanced registry in Cardiac-Interventional Radiography (CI)
- New York State Radiological Technologist License

