

Example of Investment Grade Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for an investment grade. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for investment grade

- Provide portfolio analysis, performance, and market color to PWM professionals
- Experience using financial databases such as Bloomberg
- A strong sense of business ethics and keen awareness of evolving market regulations
- Familiarity with securities laws – 1933 Act and 1940 Act rules governing 4(a)(2)/144a private placements
- Recommending investments across a range of portfolios (e.g., with different risk appetites, restrictions on currencies/countries) and defending those recommendations in both oral and written communication with portfolio managers
- Performing ongoing due diligence and monitoring of portfolio positions and key credits in those industries, and communicating updates in a timely fashion (orally and in writing) to team members across the globe
- Analyzing Global Insurance Companies and publishing investment recommendations on their debt securities and derivatives
- You will establish an analytical frame work for the European investment grade Insurance sector and will also bring a background in European banks
- Recommend investments across a range of portfolios (i.e., with different risk appetites, restrictions on currencies/countries) and defending those recommendations in both oral and written communication with portfolio managers
- Perform ongoing due diligence and monitoring of portfolio positions and key

Qualifications for investment grade

- Knowledge of derivatives especially as related to credit default swaps and interest rate swaps
- Undergraduate degree in the sciences, engineering, or finance is strongly preferred
- Strong oral and written communication skills, including high level of fluency in English
- 5 years minimum experience in investment grade credit markets
- Numerical and analytical with good attention to detail
- A keen interest in learning about and following financial markets