Our growing company is hiring for an IOS. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for IOS

- You'll get to be a part of the team that created a platform that is going to change the way people bank
- Help lay the foundation of a PCH Mobile app API
- Collaborate with various stakeholders to define and develop the best possible product for our customers
- Build software that enables the success of the business by providing an avenue to acquire and retain clients
- Provide and adhere to best-practices for mobile application development
- A business that trusts and embraces tech
- Use your preference of tools and hardware
- Design, Develop & Prototype iOS native customer applications for phones and tablets for internal and external use
- Ensure adherence to team processes and standards for maintaining quality code (Scrum, ticket administration, code review, unit tests)
- Familiar with tools in continuous integration and continuous development pipeline

Qualifications for IOS

- Demonstrable iOS development experience with one published app
- Experience with 3r party libraries and APIs
- Experience with remote data via REST and JSON
- Demonstrable iOS-specific architecture skills, across mobile/tablet form factors, understanding of languages applicable to iOS

- Experience meeting strict security requirements of enterprise/high-grade consumer iOS apps (on-device, in-transit, server-side)