Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for an IT programmer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for IT programmer

- Partner with the business to define Business Practices and analyze specific business problems
- Participate in user acceptance testing on new products and versions
- Work with Development teams to understand new capabilities and assist in resolving product gaps and enhance the product to better meet the market place
- Responsible for technical set-up of CRM modules on test and production instances
- Develop and action migration scripts, test plans and performance plans
- Conduct product training for business/end-users
- Develop and share best practice/technical/process documents
- Contribute to Global Knowledge Repositories
- Participate in projects and influence project directions in compliance with PEO technology standards
- Design production system architectures

Qualifications for IT programmer

- Document exact business needs along with both functional and non-functional requirements
- Prepare use cases, business requirements documents (BRD), system requirements specification (SRS) documents and other functional documents
- Based on system needs, create prototype, mockups and screens

- Interact with the technology team and help them understand the technical aspects of the solution
- Oversee the development, conduct meetings and perform project management