Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a java software developer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for java software developer

- Must be available and on-call according to schedule prepared by Supervisor
- Must be able to operate a personal computer and various other computer-related office equipment
- May review prospective projects to assess difficulty level, feasibility and time involved
- Develop, maintain, extend software components and ensure reliable deployment of new features for a wide range of EBSCO products, especially focused on eBook products
- Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills, including the ability to act as a bridge between non-technical users and technical resources
- Web-based technologies (SOAP, REST, JavaScript, HTML5, CSS)

Qualifications for java software developer

- Knowledge of TDD (Test Driven Development) using JUnit
- Experience with modern JS web libraries preferably AngularJS
- Other technical skills which would be beneficial include, test tool development experience, systems programming in Unix or Windows, knowledge of n-tier architectures and model-view-controller software architectures, knowledge of web-based application architecture and components, configuration and tuning of Unix systems
- Prefer candidates who have experience working on high volume systems and has working knowledge of performance testing and tuning
- Charge internal batteries during energetic team events (wind-surfing, scuba