

Example of Junior Civil Engineer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a junior civil engineer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for junior civil engineer

- Preparation of calculation packages, drawings, permit applications, technical specifications, and other technical documents as needed
- Field investigations and construction support services
- Computes area quantities from recorded field notes
- Assignments may include site grading, stormwater analysis and stormwater design, construction monitoring, and permitting
- Interface with Project Managers, government regulators, other contractors and other representatives, as needed
- Developing detailed design documents including technical drawings, specifications, and contract documents
- Client communications including preparation and delivery of project presentations
- Technical report development including inspections and assessments, asset management, health and safety, environmental assessments, and detailed design reports
- On-site inspection and assessment activities of various client infrastructure
- Construction management activities including on-site inspections, construction oversight, and construction contract administration

Qualifications for junior civil engineer

- Should have at least 3-5 years of On-site Experience in large projects
- PMC experience in similar kind of project
- Environmental remediation, due diligence, and compliance

- Professional Engineer License (P.Eng)
- Pipe rehabilitation experience is an asset