Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a junior .NET developer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for junior .NET developer

- Carry out incident investigation to find and address root cause
- Lead major incident investigations where appropriate
- Assess and contribute to prioritisation of problem/CI activity
- Carry out technical analysis for Problem/CI
- Delivers Problem & Changes through SDLC
- Follows coding standards and SDLC procedures appropriately, participates in peer review/policing of standards
- Participates in peer review for changes, provides guidance to peers on standards
- Follows call handling best practice, contributes to refinement of process
- Adhere our disaster recovery procedures
- Create technical design solutions from functional requirement documents for Problems

Qualifications for junior .NET developer

- Experience of working in client-facing environments or as part of a project team is required
- You must be self-motivated and organised with the ability to multi-task and work independently, without close supervision
- Have a firm grasp of RDBMS's, including the querying language, database design and administration (MSSQL Preferred)
- Bachelor's degree or higher in Computer Engineering, Computer Sciences, IT,

- Can work independently but remain transparent to a team lead located abroad
- Takes an active interest in their role and the wider use of what they produce