

Example of Land Surveyor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of land surveyor. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for land surveyor

- Prepare sketches to support the field work
- Perform survey work under the direction and guidance of the Senior Surveyor
- Supervising and coordinating the activities of Site staff for whom responsible and keeping them informed on matters which may influence their work
- Checking regularly the primary survey control beaconing and the setting out of all parts of the Permanent Works, before construction, and the line and level, after construction
- Ensuring prompt responses when the Contractor has called for inspections of setting out
- Supervising additional any Site surveys and, when appropriate, agreeing survey details with the Contractor
- Observing the performance of the finished works including recording movements and settlements
- Assisting the Engineer's Representative and the Lead Engineers to maintain full and complete Site records
- Maintaining records, on purpose-made drawings, the actual levels and full details of any deviations from the working drawings
- Checking that all survey equipment under the control of the Engineer's Representative and lead Engineers in good adjustment

Qualifications for land surveyor

- Ensuring coordination of project interfaces with existing infrastructure and

- At the Full Performance Current registration as a land surveyor in a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia obtained by written examination is required
- Requires possession of or ability to acquire a valid state driver's license
- Familiarity with residential subdivision layout
- Experience helpful but not necessary
- Pursuing an associates or bachelors degree in Surveying or Civil Engineering