Our innovative and growing company is looking for a lead applications developer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for lead applications developer

- Support the day to day activities and user support related to Qlik Sense and Web integration systems
- Collaborate with the Data & Analytics team to ensure data integrity across all the BI Systems portfolio
- Manage knowledge transfer of applications and rotational back-up support for developers
- In concert with the Architecture and Infrastructure teams, design new applications that are internally or externally facing that are built with scalability, security and functionality focus
- Design, implement and coordinate the delivery of high quality, resilient, strategic real-time and historic data services for Equities , Market Risk and FICC for trade processing, trader workflows, risk management and reporting
- Develop in C++ and Python, using in-house built next generation Athena data platform
- Defining Automation Framework(s)
- Work on test automation and regression testing
- Create Synthetic test data based on Business Requirements
- Work closely with the Project Team to ensure quality through out the project development life cycle

Qualifications for lead applications developer

- At least 2 years experience in information security principles as it relates to system and network
- At least 2 years experience in UNIX/Linux system administration skills
- Advance level of understanding and experience using Rich UI Frameworks
- BWA experience not essential, but a plus
- Experience with ExtJS/GWT technology