Our growing company is hiring for a lead programmer. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for lead programmer

- Develop effective written and oral communications
- Assist with technical management and support of all software systems utilized by admissions (undergraduate and graduate enrollment operations)
- Assist with the configuration and management of SQL Server databases
- Lead the development, enhancement, and maintenance of programs and reports using SQL, object-oriented programming languages and business intelligence software
- Prepare and update status reports, system documentation, and manuals
- Collaborate with internal and external stakeholders to gather requirements, interpret findings, and solve problems related to institutional research
- Manage the office's source control repository
- Determine sources of data and proper methods of collection
- Create and submit data files to administrative and regulatory authorities
- Select, extract, and prepare data for statistical analysis

Qualifications for lead programmer

- Four additional years of applicable experience may be substituted for the
- Strong experience building robust in-game UIs
- Excellent understanding of all parts of Unity3D
- Expert understanding of how to get the best
- Demonstrable experience of building games for programming experience