Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of lead solutions architect. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for lead solutions architect

- Provide technical support to assist with writing Requests For Proposals (RFP) and Requests For Information (RFI)
- Partner with operations staff, solution architects and developers to maximize automation of critical infrastructure components
- Developing messaging for proposal responses that represent compelling value propositions to customers and differentiate Optum from competitors
- Develop, manage and communicate current state and future state architectural models, keeping them aligned to changing business needs and relevant for active technology portfolio management
- Designs and leads the implementation of solutions that support business functions, processes, and applications
- Designs and directs the governance activities associated with ensuring compliance of enterprise standards
- Develops a road map of the evolution of the enterprise application portfolio from current to future state as defined by our enterprise standards
- Identifies the organizational impact (for example, on skills, processes, technology, and information) and financial impact of recommended solution architecture
- Gather detailed technical requirements and configuration information from the customer's systems and users to assist with the scoping of work and reducing deployment/development risks
- Take ownership of each ILPS deployment in your territory and ensure the system is accepted with the highest level of customer satisfaction

- Proven years of experience delivering large-scale, enterprise-wide, web applications -- specifically in managing multi-generational application development projects
- Preferable if candidate has some years' experience in development lead role
- Must have prior experience in architecting and/or developing systems that have mobile front-end and backend
- Expertise on End to End Integration, Solution testing with multiple products is a must
- Solid network performance background with datapath experience and multi-core and SMP experience --- NUMA, CPU affinity, Hyper-threading, packet throughput, latency
- Must have the ability to communicate complex technical solutions to all types of audiences through whitepapers and presentations