Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a linux administrator. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for linux administrator

- Monitor server performance and availability
- Install and move servers and storage equipment
- Interface with support vendors
- Working closely with application developers, tech managers and business analysts
- Developing new solutions
- Fixing outstanding issues
- Collaborating with team members to build out a new datacenter
- Performing application migrations
- Working closely with other team members to build out a new datacenter
- Troubleshoot and support Linux and Solaris systems, deeper troubleshooting knowledge of technologies sitting on top of them (ex

Qualifications for linux administrator

- Linux Administration will be involved in demonstrating Linux system administration, ZFS, SMF, SUN Cluster, Veritas Volume Manager, NFS, TCP/IP networking and SAN storage (Powerpath), shell scripting
- Linux Administration LVM(Logical Volume Manager) administration, user management, suse manager administration, exposure to yum, zypper, rpm, security hardening
- Minimum 5 years of experience in HACMP
- Data center exposure is preferred
- This position requires a Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science and/or

- Evaluates new technologies and develops departmental standard practices to insure SOX and PCI compliance