

Example of Localization Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a localization manager. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for localization manager

- Forecast and manage vendor spend through product allocation and other financial and analytical approaches
- Help identify, sign, and on-board new vendors to build a strong and scalable vendor network
- Create strategy for the project management team to ensure prioritization of efforts and focus of resources to deliver against overall program objectives
- Provide thought leadership by identifying areas for growth and improvement to scale the business, including new areas of focus and process optimizations
- Advocate on behalf of the Globalization team, building partnerships with key organizations including Product, Engineering, Marketing, PR, and the Customer Support team
- Create and continuously improve international launch process to meet current business needs and to scale to future requirements
- Leadership and mentorship for internal localization program and project managers
- Define requirements and build roadmaps for localization tools and infrastructure, and engage with technical partners (ie
- Overview multiple localization projects from project planning to release
- Partner with Product and Development team and advocate for internationalization standards and best practices

Qualifications for localization manager

- You have developed and fostered relationships within the localization industry

- You are familiar with our core values
- You're familiar with the tools of the trade
- You've worked on AAA video game titles bound for or coming from Thailand
- A minimum of 3 years' of game or software localization experience on AAA titles