Our growing company is looking to fill the role of logistics procurement. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for logistics procurement

- Execute industry-standard Procurement strategies/processes, tools and measurements
- Collaborate with different functions within our supply chain team and internal customers
- Set-up of consolidated, global reporting and data analysis for capital and flow parts including definition of KPIs and scorecards
- Direct responsibility for leveraging $1 billion of annual global transportation, logistics and warehousing spend across SBG's, CoEs and Corporate and direct accountability for delivery of over $40 million of annual gross savings
- Lead supplier development and supply base management for the transportation and logistics category
- Drive synergies and strategy for transportation and logistics supplier transition projects
- Lead cross-functional teams, formulate and execute strategies to leverage supplier capabilities
- Create and manage all project related sourcing documents
- Review and comments / updates sourcing aspects (including Tender sourcing Strategy, Vendor List, Resource Allocation Plan, Turnkey Package Plan)
- Support critical order negotiations (high value

Qualifications for logistics procurement

- Must have completed 30 or more semester hours prior to the start of the

- Delivery of breakthrough results in savings (i.e.>10% net cost down/out) and other departmental objectives, such as attaining supplier diversity targets
- Leadership of Category and Contract Management processes to deliver best possible value and performance
- Stakeholder Alignment – ensuring buy-in for initiatives, developing and supporting stakeholder initiatives, supporting profit planning process, facilitating achievement of business goals
- In-depth subject matter expertise in the Logistics field and current in industry trends and best practices