

Example of Lube Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of lube technician. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for lube technician

- Mechanical experience - diesel engine preferred
- Must have a valid Class A or B Driver's License, ability to provide and maintain proper licensure, medical card and acceptable driving record
- Must be able to travel over nights during season, weekends and long shifts as needed
- Must provide your own basic tools
- Top of the "Line" communicator. Ability to talk and write with confidence, charisma and competence for a wide variety of audiences including management
- Listeners...Not Hearers Seek to understand, do not hear to reply

Qualifications for lube technician

- Comprehension of complex work instructions and documentation the ability to perform duties with little direction
- A detailed knowledge and understanding of Lubrication Best Practices is a plus
- Experience servicing heavy construction equipment is highly preferred
- Valid CDL-A preferred, will accept CDL-B license (a must) and a good driving record
- High school diploma or GED required, some trade school or equivalent training desired
- 1 to 3 years of mechanic experience with diesel equipment, heavy

