Our company is hiring for a manager AR. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for manager AR

- Works closely with Operations and Maintenance to drive Food Safety and Quality ownership to the floor
- Trains and develops subordinates in the performance of their duties
- Manages Plant timelines and critical milestones for the Food safety and Quality Improvement Plan and other food safety/quality metrics (ie
- Interprets, analyzes, and communicates quality and food safety issues, both internal and external (consumer complaints), and initiates applicable corrective measures
- Ensures compliance to all applicable regulatory agency requirements (USDA, FDA, CFIA)
- Liaison with local USDA and or FDA inspectors and any other food regulatory officers that visit the plant
- Provides leadership for compliance to food safety and quality programs Implements and maintains quality programs
- Develops corrective action when Food Safety or Quality deficiency is identified
- Acts as liaison for all technical and QC issues between operations, RQI, and sales/marketing departments
- Provides Corporate with quality assurance assistance involving vendor issues, both improvements and corrective measures

Qualifications for manager AR

- Oversees product quality with regards new product implementation and

- Skills in monitoring and measurement of process control, auditing, manufacturing of food products, sanitation process, knowledge of HACCP, SSOP regulations, skills in team leadership, effective communication, and root cause analysis
- Ensures execution of effective "local-level" plan, including PRUSA strategic imperatives and local KPIs, in line with AOP on local geography / channel level
- Owns resolution of execution-related issues in local geography / channel with minimal support from Regional Manager
- Manages and drives agenda for distributor team
- Owns relationships with small number of key accounts