

Example of Manager, Nursing Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a manager, nursing. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for manager, nursing

- Demonstrates initiative in developing, implementing and analyzing patient experience and quality improvement activities and outcomes of the department
- Utilizes performance management knowledge and skills to implement annual staff performance appraisals and goal setting, continual performance development, corrective action and disciplinary processes
- Responsible for quality oversight and health related training to assigned service sites in a group home setting
- Provide resources and guidance to support the
- Supervises, assesses, plans, implements and evaluates the delivery of patient care
- Develops and implements departmental plans, including performance improvement activities and compliance with current regulations
- The Manager assumes 24 hour accountability for the department
- Supervises and evaluates all personnel assigned to the unit and effectively utilizes nursing personnel, time responsibilities for the unit and is directly accountable to the Chief Nursing Officer
- Communicates with staff, physicians and administration both written and verbally
- The Manager assumes house supervisory responsibilities as assigned, including responding to codes throughout the hospital, assessing and charting, and following through with appropriate documentation

-
- Minimum of three years of experience in an acute care setting
 - Requires full range of body motion including handling and lifting patients, manual dexterity, and eye-hand coordination
 - Participation on professional committees inclusive of UBTs, National Certification in Specialty, demonstrated completion of RN Leadership Development Program and/or demonstrated experiential exposure to Nursing Leadership
 - Manage operations and staff in the perioperative setting
 - Master's degree in Nursing with 10 years of experience
 - Certification in area of inpatient specialty area preferred