

Example of Manager Pharmacy Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of manager pharmacy. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for manager pharmacy

- Advise patients about medications including side effects
- Advise prescribing providers and other staff about medication interactions and dosages and give advice about other medication related issues and information as needed
- Advise patients regarding over-the-counter medications and other products that may be available depending on their symptoms and other health concerns
- Plans, organizes, manages, and communicates effectively department activities
- Participates in the departmental strategic planning
- Assists the Director of Pharmacy in maintaining the compliance with The Joint Commission and other regulatory standards
- You should establish and maintain an effective system of communications throughout the organization
- Provide challenging opportunities that improve employee career growth
- Ensures Pharmacy department goals and strategies align with the organization's vision and strategy
- Develops and implements pharmacy clinical programs to address patient safety, over-/under-utilization, and applicable Rating measures in-house and/or in conjunction with PBM

Qualifications for manager pharmacy

- Manages the pharmacy marketing program that includes but is not limited to patient counseling, doctor detailing, patient recruiting, identifying levels of generic substitutions and developing price structuring and in-store screening programs
- Demonstrated commitment to the Partners-in-Caring process by integrating our culture in all internal and external customer interactions
- Knowledge of pharmacy business and specialty compounding
- Knowledge of copy machine