

Example of Manager, Planner Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of manager, planner. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for manager, planner

- Calculate and analyze the gaps between forecasts and real sales
- Field operations on the project(s) assigned in order to achieve timely and profitable completion of each project
- Directing and mentoring on-site staff and the field labor force, including laborers/craft workers
- Managing the execution of all work orders
- Preparing cost estimates related to the maintenance, repair, alteration, and construction of facilities
- The position requires business management acumen and must demonstrate strong leadership, organizational and time management skills, having strong communication and client service skills
- Oversees construction permit process
- Develops Work Breakdown Structure (WBS) in conjunction with Project Management Team and Team Leaders
- Provide leadership to the Bridgewater Facilities Planning & Move Operations team for day-to-day facilities planning and move activities for strategic projects in support of defined business and customers' needs
- Combine the disciplines of project management and people management for effective collaboration on all activities

Qualifications for manager, planner

- Proven relationship management expertise and Business Development with

- Proven experience in establishing a successful growth and customer advocacy business model
- Relevant tertiary degree desirable (not essential)
- RG146 or Diploma of Financial Planning desirable (not essential)
- Develops ideas and concepts for the channel including involvement in developing themes weekends, stunts, strands and seasons, working closely with the Promotions, Marketing and Commercial teams