

Example of Manager, Planner Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for a manager, planner. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for manager, planner

- Design and co-ordination of EHV/HV/LV power distribution diversion and connection schemes to maintain secure and reliable connections
- Power demand profiling and estimation
- Advice to legal teams on the development of utility framework contracts between Utility Stakeholders and client
- Advising on procurement, design coordination, programme sequencing, risk and stakeholder management
- Management of interface with local borough councils for the coordination of utility works
- Establishing the approach and formats to coordinate works with a contract value of £1bn
- Ability to prepare outline designs for permanent and temporary utility routes coordinated into overall infrastructure plans to establish land take and environmental considerations
- Stakeholder management with DNOs to maintain assurances, coordinate outline designs and achieve scheme approvals
- Actively challenging the utility stakeholder designs and approach on behalf of client
- Establishing outline programmes for the utility works to identify the strategies for planning design, procurement, and construction activities

Qualifications for manager, planner

- Demonstrated experience (including lending & relationship management) in a

- Significant Banking industry experience, including growth and retention strategies
- Work with Ad Sales and Marketing to ensure the schedules meet the market requirements
- Works alongside the Research team to ensure the best possible audience analysis is incorporated into the strategy for content rollout
- Ensures planning is within OFCOM and local regulatory guidelines
- At least 10 years of NEPA/SEPA experience