

Example of Manager, Planner Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of manager, planner. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for manager, planner

- Demand Planner will work closely with marketing & sales in order to deliver optimum product availability
- Lead and manage multi-firm, multi-task, interdisciplinary team task orders and contracts for infrastructure planning studies
- Assist in development of opportunity leads, project teams and coordination with the Infrastructure Client Development team to capture strategic projects
- Assist in development of project scopes and budgets, interfacing with and maintenance of clients, mentoring and development of junior staff, and development of project plans and schedules
- Contribute to strategic planning, development and growth of the Texas Transportation Operations' team
- Global Medical Affairs Leadership Team (GMALT), Extended GMALT
- Research and prepare fee & tech and development budgets for new properties
- Develop project timelines for new community openings
- Review, analyze, and summarize all risks
- Facilitate communication between other teams and vendors

Qualifications for manager, planner

- Capacity to deal with ambiguity address and solve complex problems
- In-depth knowledge of own area of functional responsibility and working knowledge of other disciplines and their interrelationship to

- Minimum twelve (12) years of general architecture planning, and/or construction management experience preferred
- Advanced degree and/or post graduate work preferred
- 5 or more years of Sales & Marketing automotive related experience at a professional level