

Example of Manager Regulatory Affairs Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a manager regulatory affairs. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for manager regulatory affairs

- Be responsible for managing interpretation and dissemination of state and federal regulatory requirements
- Develops and delivers training and educates internal and external audiences regarding federal and state legal and regulatory requirements
- May prepare a single service regulatory or technical proposal for senior review and/or propose budgets for less routine projects, out of scope activities and potential budget efficiencies
- Achieve the Regulatory Affairs coverage plan as contracted with the Head of Regulatory Affairs
- Ensure that the business addresses concerns raised by the Regulator /delivers on commitments made to the Regulator
- Implement and comply with BIA Audit recommendations pertaining to Compliance
- Follow up on any compliance related findings or action items
- Facilitate the Regulatory Change process in the business
- Advise the business on any changes in set standards/ local requirements (throughout the year)
- Act as a point of contact between the business and the regulators

Qualifications for manager regulatory affairs

- Bachelor's degree, preferably in a scientific discipline English • At least 7-10 years regulatory CMC experience for BS

- Must have experience communicating with EU/US Regulatory bodies
- Knowledge of pharmaceutical basics
- Eager to learn, independent, result oriented and persistent
- Over 7 years professional experience in the area of Regulatory Affairs, Trade Compliance, Product Safety Product Stewardship, Marketing authorizations