

Example of Manager Safety Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking for a manager safety. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for manager safety

- Monitors and evaluates security officer performance on key security issues and programs, recommends correction action programs where appropriate
- Overall responsibility is to lead program improvements related to the safety program, environmental compliance, safety training and site security
- Maintain compliance with OSHA, EPA and all environmental regulations
- Responsible for providing advice and counsel to line management on security policy and practices
- Conducting field-monitoring activities associated with hot work permitting, excavation permits, crane operation, equipment loading/unloading
- Conducting accident investigations and incident reports as needed
- Review monthly KPI results (vehicle accident and work-related injury performance)
- Develop and mentor employees and take corrective actions when necessary
- Promotes an accident-free work environment by developing programs that routinely train, monitor and assure a safe workplace
- Plans and delivers programs to train managers and employees in workplace safety practices

Qualifications for manager safety

- A recognized diploma or higher in Construction Safety/ Occupational Safety and Health, or equivalent
- A Registered Safety Officer and Registered Safety Auditor under the

- ISO14001 & OHSAS18001 internal auditor certification is highly preferred
- Graduate Engineer in Fire and safety / Graduate or Diploma Engineer with Diploma in Industrial safety
- Resolve escalated incidences
- Review investigative reports for safety instances