

Example of Manufacturing Director Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of manufacturing director. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for manufacturing director

- Support the production line with continuous improvements, including line layout and material replenish
- Evaluate all available internal and external technologies including manufacturing equipment, and Materials while working with Production Technology team
- Select and implement appropriate technologies that result in lower manufacturing cost, lower process variability and higher manufacturing capability
- Prioritize and manage execution of multiple departmental and new product development projects
- Oversee selection of manufacturing processes that meet business goals
- Work with other leaders cross-functionally to standardize, leverage and implement engineering tools and establish best-demonstrated practices
- Develop and control the validation and verification strategy for legacy products as new equipment is acquired or as process improvements are implemented
- Advise personnel in product and process validation and verification activities and train in best practices for medical device manufacture
- Provide engineering resources in support all necessary projects and activities
- Own and drive all operations and process risk management documentation

Qualifications for manufacturing director

- Experience in managing projects that uses immediate/controlled-release

(drying/granulation/multi-particulate coating), compression (single/bilayer), and tablet coating technologies

- Able to work on unique challenges and find solutions that may serve as precedent for future decisions affecting the entire organization
- Able to represent Gilead in public forums
- Experience in managing People Managers
- Bachelors degree in science with minimum of 15 years of directly related GMP manufacturing experience, including at least 10 years of management/supervisory experience
- Process development or technology transfer experience a plus