Our growing company is looking to fill the role of mechanical superintendent. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for mechanical superintendent

- Quote mechanical works and manage safe efficient execution
- Collate all documentation to complete final job costing
- Analyse completed jobs to provide commentary on positive or negative margins
- Liaise with CS Operations Superintendents to identify opportunities in each region, developing strategic plans for growth
- Responsible for the rectification of Hawk T.65/a & T.165 aircraft assigned to the Mechanical Trade Superintendent by the Aircraft Rectification Team Leader ensuring that sufficient aircraft are available to deliver the organisation's commitments across trade boundaries
- Leads a team of approximately 35 Tradesmen/Supervisors
- Ensures that appropriate numbers of staff are available, suitably qualified and experienced to complete the required work
- Ensures work is carried out in accordance with the standards and procedures detailed within the MOE
- Certifies maintenance and carries out independent inspections
- Responsible for the development of mechanical fault diagnosis and rectification capability through effective coaching, mentoring and development ensuring that Hawk platform knowledge is captured and exploited in an effective manner

- General knowledge of construction equipment
- Ability to secure and maintain a DOE "L" or "Q" clearance
- A degree in Mechanical Engineering with at least five (5) years of related experience
- Eligibility for Professional Engineer designation in the Northwest Territories is desirable
- Knowledge of NWT Mine Health & Safety Act and relevant safety acts and legislation
- At least five (5) years' experience in mining, in a maintenance supervision role