

Example of Medical Lead Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a medical lead. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for medical lead

- Conduct quality improvement and outcomes studies as directed by the state and federal regulatory agencies, the Quality Management Committee, Medical Advisory Committee, Peer Review Committee, and management
- Supporting development and implementation of Country Medical Brand Plans in
- Design content product workflows on regional and local levels, for wide variety of specialties through working closely with legal/compliance/governance teams external editorial boards
- Acts as a supervisor designate in the absence of the supervisor-Assumes supervisory duties as appropriate whenever a supervisor is not present
- Purchasing and inventory- Demonstrates awareness of appropriate inventory levels in all sections of the laboratory
- Quality Control, Preventative and unscheduled maintenance- Instrument maintenance and/or function checks are performed and documented accurately, according to procedure
- Serve as a role model for subordinate employees and adheres to all policies- Maintains confidentiality regarding patient, hospital and laboratory business
- Training, development, and continuing education- New procedures are mastered within established time frames
- Provision of strategic support to multiple internal groups including Global Medical Affairs, Marketing, Sales Training, Research & Development, Business Development, Medical Communications, Medical Writing, Global Medical Safety, Medical Education, Medical Information and the Medical Science Liaison Team)

therapeutic area

Qualifications for medical lead

- Network with national/international Scientific Experts
- Pro-active and able to anticipate to future needs and spot new opportunities
- An MD or PhD is required with ideally Endocrinology or Neonatology experience
- Experience leading medical teams at the brand or disease area levels in country, regional or global organizations is preferred
- Work with the Head US GD Medical, the development and in-year implementation of the medical plan in the US and/or support in-year plan definition and implementation by US GD TA team
- Drives US execution of specific medical projects per US medical strategy