

Example of Mental Health Associate Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking for a mental health associate. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for mental health associate

- Develop field research protocols and supervise country partners in their implementation
- Train local researchers on different research methods and analysis and help them identify opportunities for capacity building
- Identify, establish and facilitate academic and research partnerships between different institutions in Nepal and abroad
- Qualitative and Quantitative Data analysis with NVIVO, Stata, and SPSS
- Participate in academic publications, academic conferences, and other dissemination activities
- Field supervision of GW students conducting research in Nepal
- Support the Principal Investigator (PI) in identifying and writing grant applications
- Develop field research protocols and supervise country partners in its implementation
- Plan and implement group therapy in a community setting as therapeutically appropriate
- Implement two (2) Intensive Outpatient Program weekly groups between 3-4 days a week – 1 for preschool-aged children (ages 3-5) and an after school program for K-2 children (ages 6-9) utilizing the Incredible Years Dina Small Group Intervention Program and Bounce Back program (for children who have experienced early traumatic stress)

Qualifications for mental health associate

- Able to communicate clearly and provide verbal feedback in a professional manner
- Able to follow and understand instructions, and react favorably in all work situations
- Strong interpersonal skills and be mentally adaptable and flexible in dealing with a variety of people at various levels
- Experience working with adolescent population highly desired
- Must meet qualifications of a Qualified Mental Health Associate as identified by OARS 309-032-001 through 1295