

Example of Mental Health Associate Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a mental health associate. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for mental health associate

- Coordinate the data management involved in progress evaluation and report to clinical staff through daily check-in/check-out with clients
- Monitor progress notes charted for each student
- Under the direction of an RN, observe and report on patient conditions, changes, and collaborates with treatment team in developing treatment plans
- Under the direction of an RN, observe and reports on patient conditions, changes, and collaborates with treatment team in developing treatment plans
- Be sensitive to needs of patients and alerts care team leaders of a change in status of the patients on the inpatient psychiatric unit
- Communication and reporting is key to this role! Strong ability to communicate to appropriate personnel at the facility about situations and/or patient care, the ability to communicate respectfully to all patients
- Problem/Conflict solving
- Provides patient care under the direct supervision of a Registered Nurse (RN), with indirect supervision of mental health skills by an employed Mental Health Professional
- Work under the direction of an RN, observe and report on patient conditions, changes, and collaborates with treatment team in developing treatment plans
- Participate in facilitating therapeutic groups for patients as assigned by RN if needed

Qualifications for mental health associate with mental health problems and people affected by conflict and disaster

- Prior experiences in working with Institutional Review Boards (IRB) and other ethical approval bodies in US and Nepal
- Experience in working with multi-cultural team across different settings
- Experience in research design, implementation and analysis
- Expertise in qualitative, quantitative and mixed method research
- Strong understanding of health systems and research in Nepal