

Example of Middle School Science Teacher Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of middle school science teacher. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for middle school science teacher

- Administrative Feedback - Informs the administration of any concerns and reaches out for help and suggestions when needed
- Design and implement unit and lesson plans in collaboration with grade or science team
- Develop and implement curriculum and daily lesson plans for 5th and 6th grades
- Administer frequent assessments and addressing findings
- Collaborate with other teachers and the principal
- Plan, organize, direct and evaluate the learning experiences of pupils in the curricular area of technology applications as defined by the district and state
- Model integration of technology hardware, software and digital resources in the classroom daily
- Uses technology to strengthen the teaching/learning process
- Seek and utilize opportunities for further professional growth through in-service education, participation in professional organizations, further study, and supervisory and consultative services provided by the district
- The TA Teacher should be knowledgeable of the TA TEKS for the three different grade level clusters

Qualifications for middle school science teacher

- Highly qualified and certified to teach High School Science in New Mexico

- Knowledge of Computer Science curriculum, effective instructional techniques, instructional materials, and equipment
- Knowledge of and skill in the use of database, Internet, spreadsheet, word processing, and related applications
- Ability to establish and maintain positive working relationships with students, parents, and staff
- Ability to build and maintain rapport and trust with students
- Strong planning, problem solving and analytical skills