

Example of Middle School Science Teacher Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a middle school science teacher. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for middle school science teacher

- Conducts assessment of each student's learning and uses results to plan appropriate and targeted instructional activities especially in the core content areas of reading, writing, mathematics, science, and social studies
- Works cooperatively with special education teachers to modify curricula as needed for special education students according to guidelines established in the Individual Education Plans (IEP)
- Works with campus and district staff to address the needs of English language learners
- Works as part of a campus problem-solving, solution-finding team that develops appropriate learning experiences and support for all students
- Communicates in a timely and professional way with parents/guardians about individual student's progress
- Teach from home, online
- Prepares daily lesson plans focusing on Indiana Science standards, course objectives, student performance and student assessments
- Provide academic subject instruction in science, insuring that curriculum map and schedule are followed
- Preparing for and delivering quality instruction (Core Knowledge curriculum)
- Delivering prompt and professional communication with the PCK community

Qualifications for middle school science teacher

- Certification should state 4-8 science OR 7-12 general science
- Current California single-subject Science teaching credential
- B.A/B.S, or higher, required in the specific content area
- Passion for the arts in educations
- A strong track record of success